

November 2, 2014

Multi-culture Workshop

Gloria Estefan

In the United States, there are many Hispanic people who succeeded in some fields. One of them is Gloria Estefan who succeeded as a singer. She was born in Havana of the Cuba in 1957. In 1994, she became famous by this song which is TURN THE BEAT AROUND. In addition to her song becoming famous, she is known as a key person in Cuba's music history. The relationship is that she has been trying to make a good relation between Miami and Cuba because she couldn't sing her songs in only Miami because of their bad relationship. Thus, she thought she wanted to make the connection more closely, so she has worked hard to do that. That is why, she was famous among many people.